Private Choice anniversary edition

In Paris, during the Art Week

From the 15th to the 22nd of October 2023

To celebrate its 10th anniversary, Private Choice is blowing a fresh wind to its event-exhibition, with “Blooming talents”. In the intimate atmosphere of a Parisian apartment, discover during the art week a tailor-made selection of over 40 young prodigies and established artists.

Since ten years, Nadia Candet and her team have been exploring the contemporary art scene in search of exceptional art works and design pieces, sublimated in a confidential Haussmanian apartment. This frame illustrates the spirit of Private Choice, whose unique event offers artists the chance to reveal the fruits of their work to an informed and aware public.

In October, browse through an imaginary collection where paintings, sculptures, textiles and exceptional pieces of design flourish, to discover and buy seeds of talent. With the complicity of the artists and our art historians from École du Louvre, let yourself be guided through your art walk for a privileged moment.
